

Builders Traits:

Building Leaders, Teams, and Success

CHARACTER: Doing what's right, even when no one's watching.

Applies to leaders, employees, and partners.

TRUST: Being reliable and consistent. Builds strong relationships and credibility across teams and clients.

VISION: Setting clear goals for projects and long-term growth.
Aligns team efforts and fosters unity.

WORK ETHIC: Demonstrating commitment and responsibility.
Sets the tone for your crew and ensures reliability.

SKILL SET: Continuously improving technical and leadership skills.
Enables growth for yourself and your team.

LEADERSHIP SELF-REFLECTION WORKSHEET

Follow along during the Leadership Summit. Use this worksheet to reflect on your leadership qualities, evaluate employees or partners, and consider how these principles apply to your ideal customer relationships.

⚙️ Character- How do I demonstrate accountability and integrity on the job site?

Answer: _____

⚙️ Trust- How do I build trust with my team, clients, and partners?

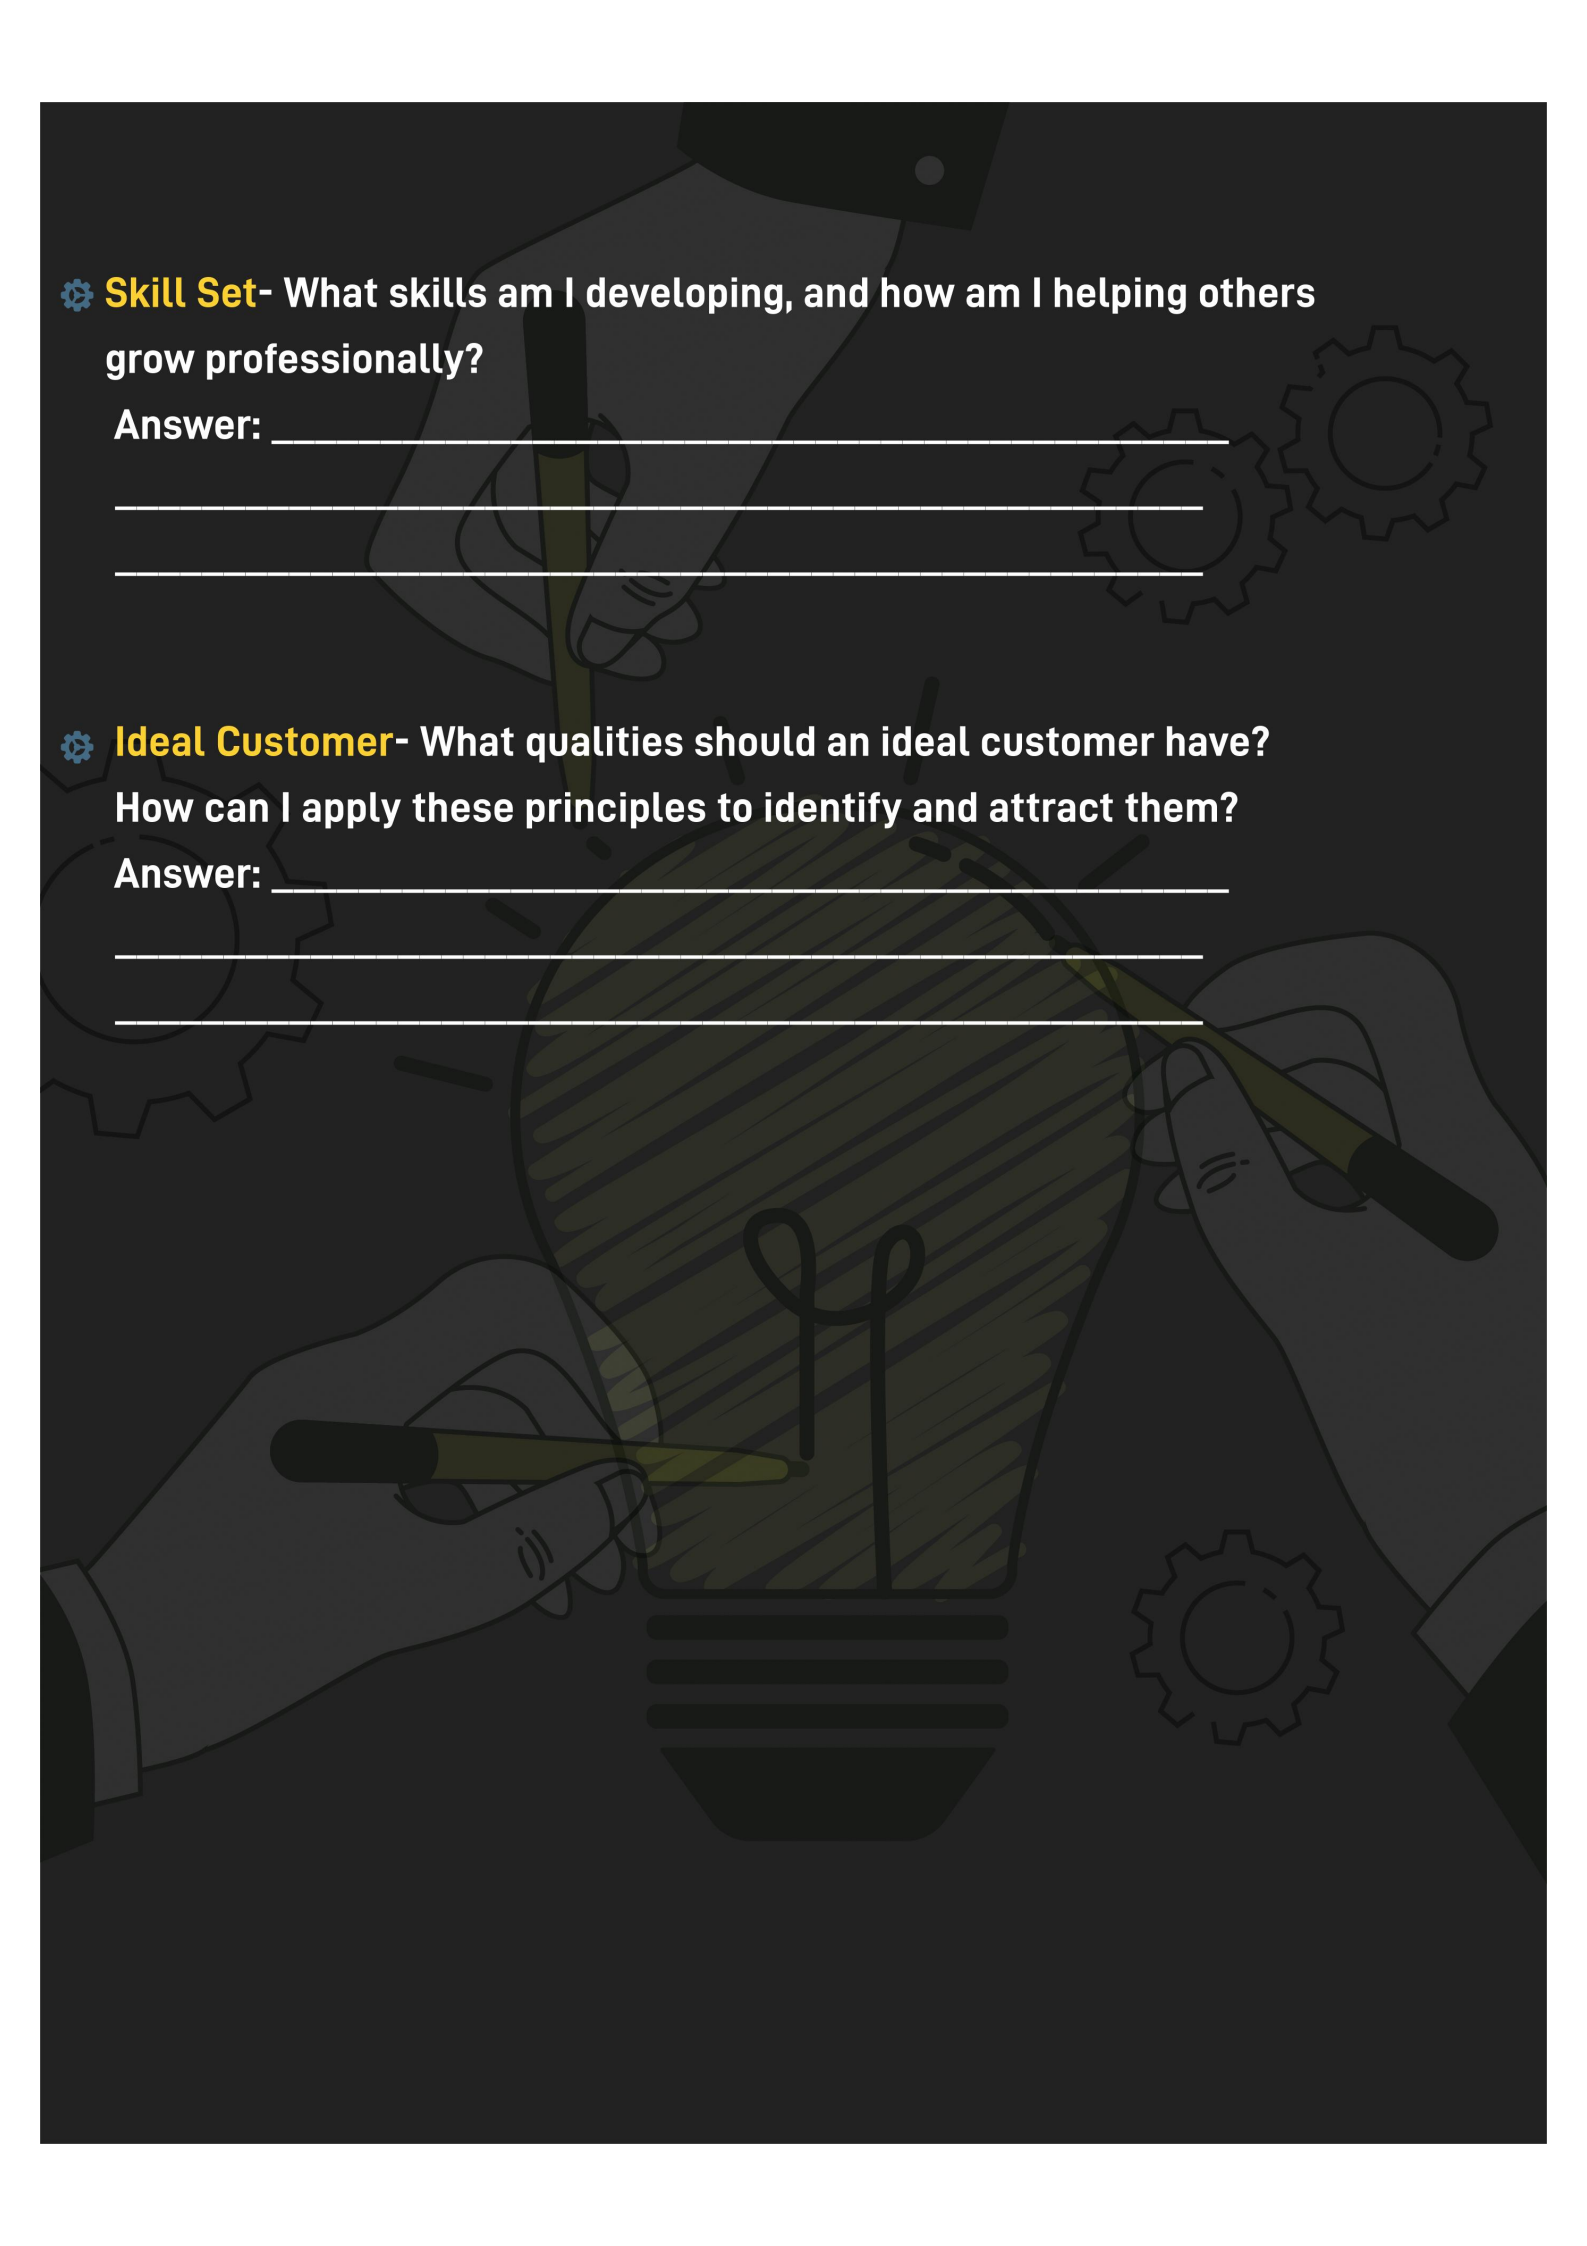

Answer: _____

⚙️ Vision- What is my long-term vision for my business, and how do I share it with others?

Answer: _____

⚙️ Work Ethic- What example am I setting with my work ethic, and how does it impact my team?

Answer: _____

The background of the page features a dark grey illustration. In the center, a large lightbulb is being drawn with a green marker. Two hands are visible: one at the top left holding a pen, and another at the bottom right holding a marker. Several gears of different sizes are scattered around the lightbulb, suggesting a theme of mechanics, engineering, or creative problem-solving.

⚙️ Skill Set- What skills am I developing, and how am I helping others grow professionally?

Answer: _____

⚙️ Ideal Customer- What qualities should an ideal customer have? How can I apply these principles to identify and attract them?

Answer: _____
